KIDS AND CYBERSPACE: HOW DANGEROUS IS IT?
More than you know....
Don’t Miss This Middle School Parent Forum!

Featuring Detective Leanne Shirey
Seattle Police Department
Vice Section - Special Investigations Unit
Northwest Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force

We’ve all heard stories about websites, instant messaging, and “incidents” on line. Here’s a great opportunity for parents to participate in an evening with an expert on the subject (please see her abbreviated bio below).

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 2, 2003
TOPS LIBRARY
7:00-8:30PM

Detective Leanne Shirey has more than 25 years of law enforcement experience. She is an expert in the area of Sexual Exploitation of Children, Internet / technology-related crimes, and computer forensics. Currently, Shirey is responsible for investigating and prosecuting crimes within Seattle, as well as at the state and federal levels. Additionally, she is a member of the Department’s computer forensic team, tasked with the responsibility of evidence recovery and processing in cases involving computers.

Detective Shirey currently teaches undercover work, Internet investigations, sexual exploitation of children, pedophiles and their methods, and child Internet safety to parents and children nationwide. She has lectured at numerous venues and conferences, including the International Association of Chiefs of Police Conference, the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center, the Western States Vice Investigators Association, the Washington Association of Sheriffs and Police Chiefs, the Washington State Bar Association, the International Policing In Cyberspace Conference, the Washington State PTA, as well as in-service training, local PTA meetings and in school classrooms to students.

In 1998, Detective Shirey began a comprehensive Internet safety and education program and organization. This non-profit organization, called The Internet and Your Child, coordinates working with various groups of law enforcement, corporate computer specialists and educators to educate adults and children in the area Internet safety and the protection of children. This organizations members partner with others in their respective communities as a resource to deal with technology issues and to encourage the reporting Internet criminal activity to law enforcement. The Internet and Your Child (IYC) organization now has training teams in seventeen states.

Contact Joni Marts with Questions: 545-4541 or jonimarts@myexcel.com